SUMMARY OF THE PROJECT

Within one year partners from Tartu and St. Petersburg will jointly promote cross-border cultural cooperation based on direct contacts at regional level and carrying out joint activities in the field of music.

The active participation of the Estonian and Russian national musicians in master-classes will strengthen improvisation skills, help to acquire new experience in ensemble playing, bring home theoretical material for independent work.

The project will give musicians opportunity to meet a world-class professionals in their field, provide a unique approach to performing and writing music that is unique to them.

Plan of activities foresees 6 master-classes to be held in Narva, Estonia, and 6 master-classes to be held in St. Petersburg. In each master class, 10 musicians from Estonia and 10 from Russia will participate. Altogether, 60 Estonian musicians and 60 Russian musicians will participate in the Project.

To promote musical culture at least 100 local people and tourists will be invited to each concert in the framework of master classes
